

55 Standish Boulevard, Pittsburgh, PA 15228

412.341.0316 info@EstillVoice.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Estill Voice International to present 9th Estill World Symposium in London, UK

Estill Voice International will present the 9th Estill World Voice Symposium at King's College London, August 9th-11th. To celebrate their world view and multi-cultural interests, Estill Voice International, LLC, produces a World Voice Symposium every two years with presentations and workshops led by some of the most gifted teachers and invited guests from the scientific, medical and voice training communities. "This year, the symposium theme is 'Let's Get Physical' as a nod to the moving anatomy at the core of every Estill Voice Training® exercise," said EVI President, Kimberly Steinhauer. A pre-course, "The Power of Diction," will usher in the symposium, hosted by Anne-Marie Speed at The Royal Academy of Music.

Presenters include:

Kimberly Steinhauer, Estill Voice International, USA

Mary McDonald Klimek, Estill Voice International, USA

Anne-Marie Speed, Symposium Chair, UK

Matthew Berthot, Winfield High School, KS, USA

Gemma Boaden, Northampton University, UK

Marianne Bos-Clark, Royal Devon and Exeter Hospital NHS Foundation Trust, UK

Kelly Burge, St. Mary's College of California, USA

Steven Chicurel-Stein, University of Central Florida, USA

Jaron LeGrair, Point Park University, USA

Wing Hong Li, Hong Kong Academy for Performing Arts, China

Clare McLeod, Berklee College of Music, USA

Carolyn Neapole, Capilano University, Canada

Michele Pagen, California University of Pennsylvania, USA

Stefania Patanè, Italy

Alejandro Saorin Martinez, Italy

Gabriella Scalise, Italy

Gillian McLaren Scott, UK

Tara Snyder, University of Central Florida, USA

Esther Spadaro, USA

Cari Tellis, Misericordia University, USA

Leon Trayman, Northampton University, UK

Jaana Turunen, Finland

Hanny van Lankeren, Netherlands

Simon Ward, Academy of Music & Performing Arts, Australia

Brian Winnie, Western Illinois University, USA

Also to be presented at the 9th Estill World Voice Symposium is The Estill Lifetime Achievement Award. The ELAA celebrates those who have made significant contributions to the field of voice and embraced the mission of Jo Estill: to bring voice training into all regions of the world.

About Estill Voice International, LLC

Estill Voice International leads the way in vocal training and rehabilitation by providing simple tools that enable speakers and singers to achieve their personal vocal goals. Estill Voice International provides unparalleled educational opportunities, software solutions, specialized healthcare products, and world-renowned Estill Voice Training® (also known as Estill Voice Craft® in some regions). Central to its mission is the balance of vocal health and aesthetic freedom. Estill Voice International accomplishes its goals by merging science and art through progressive research, accessible technology, and innovative teaching techniques. Whether training or rehabilitating performers, every-day speakers and avocational choir singers, or corporate speakers in board rooms or call-centers, Estill Voice International offers unsurpassed products and services for unlocking the power of every voice. Visit: www.estillvoice.com

Contact: Luke Steinhauer, Marketing & Support Assistant, EVI, lsteinhauer@estillvoice.com